Creating Jour Dream Day

VISION

The first step in designing your wedding is to meet with us for a free consultation so we can discuss your vision and style. As each wedding is bespoke and unique, this first meeting is to listen to your ideas and offer advice for the best ways to bring them to life at your venue and within your budget.

CREATE

Following your design consultation, we will create a personalised quote based on the ideas discussed. This can be updated and amended in the months leading up to your wedding, with a final sign-off meeting 6 weeks before your big day. The balance is then due 4 weeks before your wedding date.

DELIVER

Our team of highly-skilled florists and stylists will be on site on the morning of your wedding to set up and make your venue look beautiful! We will also deliver bouquets, corsages and buttonholes to wherever you're getting ready and transport items between ceremony and reception.
